OCCD	CA	07-26-2018	Opinion/Decision

Judge Panel: Fitzpatrick, Lundsten, Sherman
Opinion: Certification
Decision: Certification Filed Pages: 11
Order Text: The question we certify today is whether the forfeiture by wrongdoing doctrine applies at a homicide trial where the declarant is the homicide victim, but where the defendant killed the declarant to prevent him or her from testifying at a separate proceeding. It may matter that in the case at hand, the defendant is not a party to the separate proceeding and the declarant would not have testified against the defendant in that separate proceeding.
An additional and closely related question we certify is whether preventing the declarant from testifying must be the defendant's primary purpose for the wrongful act that prevented the declarant from testifying in that separate proceeding.
