OCCD SC 08-12-2022 Court Order

IT IS ORDERED that on or before August 26, 2022, the parties shall submit written responses stating whether the parties agreed at the May 17, 2021 plea hearing as to which specific facts could serve as the factual basis for Attorney DeLadurantey's no-contest plea. If there was such an agreement, the response shall describe with specificity which facts were agreed upon to serve as the factual basis for the plea. For example, the parties should indicate whether the agreement was that the factual allegations contained in the entire complaint could be used as the factual basis for the plea, or that the allegations in only some of the paragraphs of the complaint could be used as the factual basis, or that the entire record in the case could be used as the factual basis, or that some other stipulated set of facts could be used as the factual basis; and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party's response shall also state whether that party believes, in light of the response to the preceding paragraph, that this court may now issue a final decision in this case based upon the facts that the parties already agreed could be used as the factual basis for Attorney DeLadurantey's plea or whether this matter should be remanded to a referee for either a new plea hearing or an evidentiary hearing, to be followed by a new report that contains comprehensive findings of fact, conclusions of law, and, if necessary, a recommendation as to discipline.
